

V. GIFTS AND DONATIONS

Within the provisions of the state laws, the Board of Trustees adopts the following policies:

A. Books and other materials will be accepted on the condition that items are current, in good condition and fill a need within the library

B. There will be no conditions attached to the gift, and the librarian has the authority to make whatever disposition he or she deems advisable.

C. Gifts of money, memorials, real property, and/or stocks will be accepted if any conditions attached thereto are acceptable to the Board of trustees.

D. Local patrons, within the district, are welcome to display paintings, artwork, etc. as space limitations allow, and will be made aware that library's insurance does not cover a loss by fire, theft or damage of other kinds.
